SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XXIX. STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, JUNE 28, 1901, 9 A M. NO. 36

SHELBY CITY.

Born to the wife of Ben Trisler, a fine boy, George Lee.

Prof. E. L. Grubbs will begin teaching the Shelby City public school July 8th. This makes his sixth term here.

The new bank building is now complete and the furniture is being put in It is a State bank and will add materially to Junction City's property.

Miss Bertha V. Grubbs will shortly begin the erection of a five-room cottage on one of her lots in the rear of the Presbyterian church. She will rent it out.

Prof. E. L. Grubbs and wife have gone to housekeeping in the Payne property on Mill Street. Misses Ethel Lee and Katie Raines, of Danville, were guests of Mrs. Sam Armstrong.

The Hustonville base ball team, with that wonderful pitcher Camnitz, came down a few days ago and beat Junction City 22 to 1, not giving them one safety, their run being made on an error.

Mr. Reynolds, formerly of the Wyborg, Hanna Co., is leasing 2,000 acres of oil land around Junction City, for a big Pennsylvania firm, which will begin boring a 2,000 foot well in July at a cost of $7,000.

The trustees of the Junction City graded school re-elected Prof. T. A. Hendricks, of Somerset, Miss Jennie Oxley and Bettie Helm principal and teachers for the coming term. Miss Kate Cox was displaced by Miss Edith Walker as second assistant.

Mr. Walker Hunn, our young teacher and lawyer, left with his sister, Miss Fannie Hunn, for Virginia, to wed Miss Ogelvie, June 30. She was a former visitor at his home. He will teach the Milledgeville school this fall and reside with his father, Dr. George Hunn.

Messrs. Fleece Owens and Robert Reed, of Parksville, were up Sunday to see two fair ladies. Mr. Lucian Minor, the genial clerk of Mr. George Hocker, is an owner of bank stock in our new bank. He also owns two houses and lots on Cemetery Street. Now is your chance girls.

HUBBLE.

Garrett Wood sold some shoats to J. C. Eubanks at 5c.

Walter Jones and son visited Tom McMelon this week.

James McKechnie and wife have gone to Buffalo, N. Y.

Wheat has badly fallen in this community on account of the fly.

Mrs. Jane Wood and Mrs. Tom Wood spent a few days with George Wood, of this place.

Eld. A. R. Moore will fill his pulpit at the Christian church Sunday afternoon at 3:30.

Mrs. Eliza Harris is repairing her dwelling extensively. Mr. Adkins is the contractor.

Wm. Curry sold his last year's crop of wheat to Potts, of Garrard, at 75c delivered in Lancaster.

Sweeney Morgan bought some hogs of Hammond & Hubble at 5c and some lambs of S. M. Spoonamore at 3¾ to 4c.

Mrs. R. L. Hubble's horse having been trained to pass all buggies on the road, tried to go by one last Sunday evening. The road being too narrow, the buggy was overturned and threw Mrs. Hubble out, bruising her up some though not seriously.

Jack Rankin has gone to Wayne for a few days. Mr. Best Hudson and wife came in last week from Maine to spend a few months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. White. Master Harry Sink, of Lexington, is at A. C. Carman's for a few days. Miss Annie Perkins, of Marksbury, is visiting Mrs J. C. Eubanks. Miss Ella Higginbotham, of Marcellus, is visiting Mrs. Wm Curry.

A TRIBUTE.

H. G. Sutton, one of Rockcastle's most prominent and valued citizens, died at his home a few miles from Mt. Vernon, of that fearful affliction known as Bright's disease, at 6 o'clock A. M. June 14, 1901. Mr. Sutton was born in Pulaski county, March 25, 1829. He was therefore 72 years old. He moved to this county in early manhood and married a daughter of Benjamin Pew, who preceded him to the grave 20 years. To them were born nine children, seven of whom are living. Two years after the death of his first wife he married a Miss Burton, and from this union were born three children, all of whom are living. Mr. Sutton was a very successful farmer and accumulated quite a fortune, which his children now inherit. Mr. Sutton was in politics a consistent democrat and was a high toned gentleman, scrupulously exact in all his dealings A perfect gentleman in the full sense of the term and a citizen of whom Rockcastle was proud and can ill afford to lose.

A FRIEND.

A lame shoulder is usually caused by rheumatism of the muscles, and may be cured by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

LANCASTER.

Dr. and Mrs. I. S. Wesley are rejoicing over the arrival of a fine boy.

Prof. J. H. Patterson is preparing to attend the National Educational Association at Detroit, Mich., July 9-12. He will then go to Buffalo to attend the exposition.

Mr. C. B. Nevius bought of George D. Robinson his former residence on Lexington Avenue for $2,400. G. A. Swinebroad bought of Mrs. William Rothwell a residence on Danville Avenue for $1,200

Mrs. R. L. Hubble's horse became unruly as she was driving down a steep grade on the Rush Branch pike. Mrs. Hubble and her daughters were thrown from the carriage and considerably, but not seriously, bruised.

Surveyors, locating the route for the Southern Extension, are now at Camp Dick Robinson, seven miles from here. They are surveying a nearer route than the old one and it is believed that the road will be run by this survey.

Speaking of the republican county ticket, an old darkey was heard to say, "Our ticket is a strong one, with few exceptions. You know, Boss, you can't get a flock of sheep without some running noses, and sich is our ticket."

The many friends of Prof. Ben S. Gowen, who once taught here, will be glad to learn that he won two first honors at Yale College, one of them being in Philosophical Orations. We are also glad to note that Elder George W. Gowen is doing fine work at Louisville, having had 119 additions in the past nine months.

Vice President A. H. Bastin, of this place, and Secretary James Maret, of Mt. Vernon, left yesterday morning to attend the State Telephone Association which convened in Lexington at 1 P. M that afternoon. The address of welcome was delivered by Hon. W. C. P. Breckinridge and responded to by R. Y. Bishop, of Cynthiana, who is president of the association. In the evening, the association will be the guests of the Lexington Chamber of Commerce at a reception at the Phoenix Hotel.

Mr. Sam Johnson is much improved. Miss Mollie Spainhower is visiting her mother at Paint Lick. Sam Cochran was over from Crab Orchard the first of the week. Mrs. George Evans is reported some better. Mrs. David Thompson continues very ill. Mr. and Mrs. Overman, of Danville, visited at Dr. Elliott's this week. Miss Lena Rigney is visiting in Danville. Mrs. Wm. George has returned from Bristol, Tenn., Mrs. Durham and little son, Brack, of McKinney, are visiting the former's daughter, Mrs. Dr. Wesley.

A crowd of young people, with Mrs. M. Belle Burnside and Miss Nelle Johnson as chaperones, spent Wednesday at the iron bridge on Dix river. They went over in a hack and all report an excellent time. A delicious lunch was prepared and everything was so cool and pleasant that they were astonished, on arriving in town, to find it as hot as ever. Those composing the jolly crowd were: Messrs. Shorley and Robert Elkin, George Dunlap, Joseph Burnside, Pasco Miller, Walter Hudson, Willie Fox Logan, Charlie Collier and Eddie Walker; Misses Sallie Ross, Willie Belle Burnside, Evelyn Hope Kendrick, Kittie Mason, Mattie Mae Robinson, Mae Robinson, Alice Walker, Ethel West and Louise Farris.

Mrs. Lucy Worrell, of Flat Wood, is very ill. W. W. Warren and daughter, Miss Katherine, of Preachersville, visited friends here Monday. Mrs. J. W. Miller and Mrs. George Lusk will attend the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo. Mrs. Susan Price is very ill. Misses Lula McClure, of Crab Orchard, Cora McClure, of Greencastle, Ind., and Annie Cochran, of Paint Lick, visited Mrs. A. H. Bastin Wednesday. Mr. James Maret, of Mt. Vernon, stopped in our town on his way to the State Telephone Association at Lexington. Rev. Leondias Robinson, pastor of the Methodist church, is at home from Carlisle and is preparing to go to housekeeping in the new parsonage. Miss Evelyn Hope Kendrick, of Monticello, is visiting Miss Willie Belle Burnside. Miss Mae Robinson, of Bryantsville, is visiting Miss Mattie Mae Robinson. Pasco Miller, of Louisville, is visiting Mrs. Robert Embry. George Dunlap, of Lexington, is visiting at Judge Burnside's. Mrs. H. B. Arnold and children, Mable Clare and Cecil, of Paris, are visiting Miss Fannie Austin. Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Powell and son, Robert, visited the family of W. S. McGuire on Dix River. Mrs. Allie Powell and children are visiting Mrs. George Ballard at Paint Lick. Miss Alice Henderson closed her school near Jesse Fox's Wednesday. Miss Jennie Ewell, of Ewell Station, who has been staying with her aunt, Mrs. Jesse Fox, and attending school, returned to her home Thursday, accompanied by her little cousin, Miss Mary Lyne Fox.

An Unusual Occurrence.

To oblige the judge of the court last week, Col. T. P. Hill consented to preside at the trial of a suit of ejectment. Although a resident of Stanford for many years, we do not recall ever having seen this mature and excellent lawyer, previous to this occasion, exercising any official function. The circumstance is not notable except as it may suggest a line of reflection. A private station may not only be, in many conditions, the post of honor; but it may be, and usually is, the post of dignity and contentment. It imposes a task upon the imagination to conceive of a happier state in this life than that of a gentleman of advanced years, still robust in health and mature in understanding, whose energy, foresight, high professional attainments and honorable business methods have secured for him the respect of his fellows and a competence to sustain him to the end of his days. Col. Hill is the elder of the Stanford bar. It is claimed by his professional brethren that he justly takes rank among the foremost lawyers of the State. Not wanting in that ambition which looks toward true greatness, he is guiltless of harboring the counterfeit of that noble passion which finds a gratification in the mere notoriety of office holding. Unostentatious, obliging, charitable, attending to his own business and never intermeddling in that of others, he has thus passed the 70th mile-stone without losing his natural force and without abatement of his mental vigor.

Not caring specially whether he practices law or not, he gives his time chiefly to the free instruction of young men who desire to qualify themselves for the profession to which he has devoted more than 50 years of his life. In this respect he is without a peer in Kentucky. Without reward, except in the lasting regard of his pupils, he has taught a larger number of young men than any private tutor in Kentucky.

And thus the white haired senior of our local bar goes in and out before his people. Unquestionably he has made his private station a post of honor. Surely it is a place of contentment.

IT is hard to tell whether one does a charitable deed or not when he donates his means to the average person who calls on him and tells his sad tale of woe. Some of those who ask alms really need and deserve help, but many are after the order of George Collins, a partially blind man, arrested at Maysville for working churches and church people. It was discovered that he had three valises at a hotel in that little city and here is what they contained: Twenty pocketbooks, 125 two and a half dollar gold pieces, $60 in other money, gold pieces, a $100 bill, one-half gallon Mexican dimes, two pair alligator hide boots, new massive gold watch chain with gold nugget locket and Odd Fellow charm attached; 200 poker, chips, heavy ring, diamond cluster ring, two revolvers, a dozen pair kid gloves, towels and napkins from the Palmer House, Chicago, and other hotels throughout the country, a lot of K. P. charms and railroad tickets. When confronted with these things Collins claimed he bought the watch and chain from Oskamp, of Cincinnati, for the snug sum of $500. He was tried and recommitted to jail on the charge of knowingly receiving stolen property, where it is hoped he will remain in good health until he is remboved to Frankfort to spend the rest of his miserable existence behind the walls of the State penitentiary.

THE more the Hopkinsville Asylum matter is stirred up, the worse the odor is. About 20 indictments have been returned for poker playing, crap shooting and the like. Dr. W. A. Lackey, first assistant physician, is indicted in three counts, Dr. J. W. Stephens, second assistant physician, in four, Buckner Leavell, steward, two, and so on. A sweet state of affairs existed at the institution and it is sincerely hoped that those responsible for it will be made to suffer to the full extent of the law.

WHEN Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, editor of the Lexington Herald, takes a half column of his editorial page to tell about a horse getting in his garden we are moved to the belief that the writer of the "ablest editorials in the South" is getting alarmingly short on subjects. It was merely a case of "horse on" the colonel, which a man of his experience and varied accomplishments should have gotten used to long ere this.

THE following from the Elkton Progress is a considerable "stretch of the blanket" but we duly appreciate Editor Loving W. Gaines' good feeling and wishes for our brother: "W. P. Walton is becoming the W. R. Hearst of Kentucky journalism. He buys a paper every few weeks simply for pastime. Here's hoping that he may make a barrel of money out of every one of them."

THE Louisville Post has at last discovered that Gov. J. C. W. Beckham is governor of Kentucky and uses the title "Gov.," instead of "Mr.," as it has been doing. Some of these hot days Dick Knott will find out that Gov. Wm. Goebel was assassinated by the republican party and that "Hog Jaw" Taylor was in the conspiracy. Dick's learning fast now.

THAT England is friendly with and partial to us, as she should be, there is little or no doubt. Speaker Henderson, of the House of Representatives, as a result of his interview with King Edward, says England may be depended upon in any ordinary controversy which may arise between the United States and the rest of the world.

HANNA was dead in it in the gubernatorial convention at Columbus, O., and he controlled the members like so many sheep. Hanna men were elected to every place on the State executive committee and Hanna was made permanent chairman. Hurrah for Hanna!

THE average paper looks on personal mentions as rather a "necessary nuisance," but the Courier Journal considers them so important that it sometimes sets them double-leaded and double-column.

THE record shows that there are 208,800 saloons in the country and that the prohibition vote at the last election was 209,000. At this rate it will be many years before the party will realize its assertion that the rum saloon must go.

POLITICAL.

Louisville business men are trying to have Sapp ousted.

Fugitive W. S. Taylor says he hopes the democrats will nominate Supreme Judge Harlan for president.

The Ohio republican State convention renominated Nash for governor by a unanimous vote. Carl L. Nippert, of Hamilton county, was nominated for lieutenant governor by acclamation.

Frank S. Monnett, who resigned as attorney general of Ohio because the republicans would not prosecute the trusts, has announced his candidacy for attorney general on the democratic ticket.

It is said that the declaration of the Ohio republican convention in favor of reciprocity is the keynote of the administration's policy and was made in accordance with the desires of President McKinley.

A resolution has been introduced in the Alabama Constitutional Convention providing for the impeachment and suspension of a sheriff, who, through neglect or cowardice, allows a prisoner to be injured or killed by a mob.

In the constitutional convention of Virginia, Judge Richmond, of Scott county, a district noted for many murders and shooting scrapes, introduced a resolution to stamp out the custom of carrying weapons in Virginia. The resolution provides that the offense shall be made a felony punishable by appropriate penalties and that persons convicted shall be disfranchised for two years.

Lazy men of our town fear Billy Poynter and Theo Wesley, the groceryman and druggist, as greatly as they do small pox. These two wags and practical jokers make life a burden to those who are inclined to shun labor. They have been known to actually talk men to sleep. Several tired men have left town to rid themselves of their tormentors. The lazy man's club and the loafers' union have ordered all their members to boycott these two business houses and to pass on the other side of the street.

Dr. Southard was called from Bee Lick Monday to see his mother, who was seriously ill. Mr. and Mrs. Champ were here from Paint Lick. James I. White is in Corbin, where he is looking after work on a stone contract he has there. Judge Williams, S. H. Martin, B. N. Roller, C. C. Williams, A. J. Pike, R. S. Martin and A. W. Stewart are attending the Good Roads Convention at Louisville. G. T. Johnson was back to Bush Creek from Waco a few days since. E. M. Short accompanied his father to Richmond Monday. Wm. Townsend, the section foreman, who was killed by lightning on a handcar on the L. & E last week, was a native of this county, to which his remains were brought for burial. Mit Miller has a Texas centipede on exhibition at his store.

Mr. Thomas Pence and Miss Margaret Lynn were married at Rev. W. E. Arnold's by that gentleman Tuesday evening, and left next morning for Louisville to remain several days. The bride is the pretty and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Lynn, of the Maywood section, and the groom is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Pence. They had been sweethearts for some time and those knowing their fondness for each other are not surprised at the culmination of their courtship. Mrs. Pence is a handsome brunette, as lovely of disposition as she is of face and will, we predict, make a helpmeet fond and true. She has been a frequent visitor to Stanford and is much admired here for her winning ways and bright and sunny temperament. Mr. Pence is a steady young farmer, of exceptionally good habits and as clever as you find 'em. He and his bonnie bride have every reason to be happy and our sincere wish is that they will be happier and happier as they grow older and know each other better. They will be "at home" for the present at the groom's father's.

What most people want is something mild and gentle, when in need of a physic. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets fill the bill to a dot. They are easy to take and pleasant in effect. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Druggists.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Eld. David Noaks will preach at Goshen Sunday week at 11 o'clock.

"Uncle Joe" Hopper's meeting at Kirksville resulted in six additions.

Rev. F. B. Walker has resigned the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Winchester.

The First Christian church and the First Presbyterian church of Winchester are without pastors.

Eld. H. C. Garrison, of Danville, will preach at the Union Moreland Sunday school building at 3:30 Sunday afternoon.

Rev. J. W. Hagin's subject Sunday morning is "Proving and Holding Fast;" at night an exposition of Isaiah 55: 6, 7.

The Baptist church at New Liberty celebrated its 100th birthday Sunday. Dr. Frost, of Nashville, preached the centennial sermon.

The Rev. George E. Shaw, a St. Paul preacher, refused to accept back salary raised by a church fair and has gone to work in a tailor shop.

The Ladies' Missionary Society will have an open session at the Baptist church Sunday night, when a pleasing program will be given.

The pastor of Central Christian church at Lexington suggested to the female members of his congregation that they leave their hats at home in hot weather.

A beautiful window has recently been placed in the rear of the pulpit of the Presbyterian church at Elizabethtown by Mr. H. A. Sommers, a memorial of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Payne Sommers.

The Rev. M. D Clubb, of Midway, financial agent for the College of the Bible of Kentucky University, is making an effort to increase its endowment fund. He has already obtained $12,000 in cash and $15,900 in pledges.

Elder George Gowen has won the hearts of his congregation and the outlook for the work at the Broadway church, Louisville, is much brighter than it has ever been at any time during the history of this congregation.—Christian Guide.

The Christian Endeavor Societies of Kentucky will meet at Covington July 6. There are 450 societies in the State and it is expected that at least 10,000 representatives and visitors will attend. At the same time the National convention of all the Christian Endeavor Societies in America will be in session in Cincinnati.

HEINZ'S Pure Table and Pickling Vinegar. John Bright, Jr., & Co. *

NEW line of cut glass, candelabras, gold watches, etc. Wm. Hamilton, jeweler. *

OUR lines of Queensware and Chinaware are very complete and cheap. George H. Farris & Co. *

ON and after July 1, I will sell meats strictly for cash and this means I will credit nobody. No favors shown. O. P. Huffman. *

ALL bids for lumber for the Hustonville fair house be in by July 1. Get specifications from either W. G. Cowan, president, or W. D. Hocker, secretary. *

BEGINNING Monday next, July 1, I will do an exclusive cash business, which means I will credit no one for either shaves, haircuts, shampoos or baths. Ed Wilkinson. *

COLORED K. OF P's.—Dr. W. D. Tardif and James Middleton, who are enthusiastic members of the order of Knights of Pythias, are preparing to organize a colored lodge here.

PUBLIC SALE.—I will sell at public auction Saturday, July 20th, my entire household and kitchen furniture, etc., on Lancaster street. Terms made known on day of sale. Jos. Ginsburg.*

ED WILKINSON, the up-to-date barber, has ordered a fan which will run by water and which will make his newly painted and papered barbershop as comfortable as it is pleasing to the eye.

PICNIC.—A grand picnic in the interest of the Stanford colored public school will be given in Hocker's woods on Friday July 26. Joe S. Reed is manager, which is an assurance that it will be a success.

THE city council has very sensibly moved the public watering trough from Jockey Row to Main Street, where horses hitched to buggies can quench their thirsts without throwing the occupants out.

W. H. TRAYLOR will close down his big distillery Saturday. He has made 1,700 barrels this run of as fine whisky as one could wish to—smell. Mr. Traylor does a big bottling business, and has just about completed putting up 12,000 quarts.

LIBERTY FAIR.—Those who had rather go to a fair at Liberty than anywhere, and there are many who had, will be glad to learn that a three days' fair will be held there beginning Aug. 14. At a meeting held a few days ago the above date was decided on and J. C. Coulter and G. R. Wilkinson were made president and secretary, respectively. It would have been hard to find two better men for the places.

THE Danville Advocate thinks it was a "great joke" on our West End friends when an effort was made by some one for spite or otherwise, to have the name Hustonville changed to Huston. We do not agree with Brer McIntyre at all and think that if it was intended for a joke, it has been carried entirely too far. Hustonville people are justly proud of their little city and are equally proud of the name, which has been acceptable to all for a century or more and we do not blame them for kicking, and kicking hard, when some unknown person or persons, attempt to have it changed. The Advocate would have a duck fit if somebody would even suggest a change in Danville's name. The people down there get mad when their town is jestingly referred to as "Little Britain." Let Hustonville's name remain what it is unless the more appropriate one of "Hospitality" be exchanged for it.

EXTRA Clean Red Top Cane Seed. Higgins & McKinney. *

FRESH car lime, salt and cement. John Bright, Jr., & Co. *

PLENTY hand-made harness of the latest pattern on hand. J. C. McClary.*

THE Middleburg Cornet Band will give a picnic at South Fork Trestle July 4.

ICE Cream Freezers at very low prices to close out stock. George H. Farris & Co. *

THE lean men and the fat men of Lancaster will play a game of ball there this afternoon.

REMEMBER that our terms are cash. Low cash prices on feed of all kinds. J. H. Baughman & Co. *

IF you need bill heads or statements for your 1st of July settlements, this office is the place to get them.

NOTICE TO TAX-PAYERS.—Your city taxes for the year 1901 are due. Please settle. L. R. Hughes, Collector. *

AGAIN we ask those papers that are publishing a list of fairs to make Hustonville read "July 31-three days."

LINCOLN county's assessed valuation is $5,185,487 and the amount of tax to be collected by Sheriff S. M. Owens is $24,631.06.

THE Booth Privileges of the Hustonville Fair will be sold at auction at Hustonville at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon July 6. *

MISSES ADAMS, of Hustonville, will sell their millinery stock on reasonable terms. Good stand. Contemplate moving causes them to sell. Write or call.*

THERE will be running races, mule races, barrel races, bicycle races, riding contests, fat man's race and a sure enough wedding at the Somerset fair July 4.

THE tax books are ready now and you are requested to call and settle. This is my last year in office and I must get all taxes in. S. M. Owens, sheriff. *

LOST, between Moreland and Miss Mollie Harmon's, via Hustonville, a light blue chambra ruffle, embroidered in white and six widths wide. Leave at this office. *

GREAT preparation is being made for the Maccabee picnic at Waynesburg tomorrow. This office acknowledges thanks for an invitation, which, Providence permitting, will be accepted.

SHERIFF S. M. OWENS, who was selected to solicit special premiums for the Hustonville Fair, July 31—three days—called on the merchants and others here yesterday and got close to $150.

CARSON & PENCE, the buggy and harness men, have bought out Wearen Bros.' stock of buggies and harness and will move it to their store. This will give them a splendid line to show to their customers.

BLUE GRASS.—Mr. John Bright has on exhibition at his son's store bunches of English, Canadian and Kentucky blue-grass, which show that the latter is by far superior. He got the Kentucky sample from a field he has seen in blue-grass for over 60 consecutive years.

JOHN A. HENDREN, J. C. McClary's up-to-date harness maker, is making for W. W. Withers a set of harness for the turnout that gentleman will put on the road in a few days that eclipses anything seen around here. It will have more than 10 pounds of brass mountings, buckles, etc., and it must have taken several hides to furnish the leather in it.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The third week of the June term of Lincoln circuit court is drawing to a close and a good deal of business remains to be done yet. Several cases have been set for next week and it is not improbable that the fifth week will find the wheels of justice still grinding. The grand jury met Tuesday but on account of the inability of one of its members to be present, it adjourned over till next Monday.

A good deal of Tuesday was taken up with the case of John Million against M. C. Burton, of Lebanon, whom he sued for $10,000 damages. Burton, for fun or otherwise, palmed himself off as a deputy U. S. marshal and arrested Million and seized his still. The jury found a verdict of $125 for the plaintiff.

Mrs. Mary E. Kauffman sued Mrs. Annie D. Yowell for several acres of land near Hustonville and won her case. The contention was over a boundary line.

W. T. Smith was given a verdict of $140 against the town of Rowland. His horse fell through a hole in a culvert at that place and was damaged and he was slightly injured. He sued for $265.

The case of the Danville, Dix River & Lancaster pike against the fiscal court of Lincoln county was set for yesterday, but was transferred to the equity docket and may not be tried this court. The suit is for $312.50, to which our fiscal court claims an offset. Messrs. J. E. Robinson and J. T. Hays, of Lancaster, represent the pike company and County Attorney Helm is assisted by Messrs. Hill & McRoberts for the county.

FRESH bread Tuesdays and Fridays and fresh cakes every week. John Bright, Jr & Co. *

A HORSE belonging to J. H. Baughman & Co., was taken from their stable and ridden last night. The animal either got lose or was given his freedom and wandered back to his stable. A futile effort was made to locate the scamp with bloodhounds.

BANKRUPT SALE OF REAL ESTATE.

In the District Court of the United States for the district of Kentucky in the matter of Henry V. Martin & Son, bankrupts, in Bankruptcy. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will, as trustee in bankruptcy of the above bankrupt, at our house door in Stanford, Lincoln county, Ky., Monday, July 8th, 1901, said date being county court day, and at about the hour of 12 m., proceed to offer for sale to the highest bidder the hereinafter described real estate. Said property will be sold as follows: One-third of the purchase price being due in 30 days from date of sale and the remaining two-thirds of purchase price due in 60 days from date of sale. The undersigned trustee will take bonds payable to himself, said bonds bearing 6 per cent. interest from date of sale until paid, with a lien retained on the land to secure payment of the purchase money and said bonds to have the force and effect of replevin bonds. The purchaser or purchasers of said property will be required in executing bond to give same with at least two good sureties. The purchaser has the privilege of paying the cash for said property and thus saving the interest. The hereinafter described land to be sold is the 7-10 undivided interest of H. F. Martin in said tract of land and which land is the old home farm of Milton Martin, situated on Hanging Fork and contains about 105 acres of land. Said land is bounded as follows: On the north by the Dougherty farm, west by James T. Martin, south by W. P. Martin and Dan Moore, and on the east by ——— Dougherty. Witness my hand, this 1st day of June, A. D., 1901.

EARL W. SENFF,

BEWARE OF OINTMENTS FOR CATARRH THAT CONTAIN MERCURY,

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's catarrh cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by druggists, price 75c per bottle.
